

Capitol Counsel & Consulting

Political Compliance Division
Santa Fe, New Mexico

Political Landscape: In and Out of New Mexico

Important information ahead of November 2022

August 23, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. La Fonda Hotel, Santa Fe, New Mexico

AGENDA

- 8:00 a.m. Breakfast and Networking
- 8:50 a.m. Welcome and Introductions
Rikki-Lee Chavez – Founder, Capitol Counsel & Consulting
Greg Gallegos – Director, Political Law Compliance Division, CCC
- 9:00 a.m. Election Integrity in New Mexico (1.0 G)
An update from the Secretary of State regarding how elections are conducted in our State to ensure accurate and unquestionable results.
Maggie Toulouse Oliver – New Mexico Secretary of State
- 10:00 a.m. Election Projections After Redistricting (1.0 G)
Information about the political performance metrics used during redistricting and which State House and Senate districts were most affected by the changes.
Brittany Poss – Research and Polling
- 11:00 a.m. Break
- 11:15 a.m. Legislative Panel Discussion (1.0 G)
Elected officials discuss their perspectives and their priorities for the upcoming session amid the changing political climate.
Senator Katy Duhigg; Representative Dayan Hochman-Vigil; Representative Javier Martinez; and Senator Peter Wirth
- 12:30 p.m. Lunch
- 1:30 p.m. SCOTUS Update (2.0 G)
An overview of landmark rulings from the U.S. high court and a look forward and into upcoming cases along with an analysis of the bench.
Vinay Harpalani – Professor of Law, UNM School of Law
- 2:30 p.m. Break
- 2:45 p.m. Ethics Efforts in New Mexico (1.0 E)
A report of recent work by the State Ethics Commission in the run-up to the 2022 election cycle and legislative priorities for next year's session.
Jeremy Farris – Executive Director, State Ethics Commission
- 3:45 p.m. Closing Remarks
Rikki-Lee Chavez – Founder, Capitol Counsel & Consulting
Greg Gallegos – Director, Political Law Compliance Division, CCC

Visit our website for the latest event information: www.nm-ccc.com

INFORMATION

1. Each session will allow time for questions
2. Materials will be provided in advance to the e-mail address used for registration
3. MCLE credit available for New Mexico attorneys
4. Meals and beverages are included

